Okay, so there you have it. Ten examples of local dog training classes running anywhere between $95 and $755 to take a 5 month old puppy with some biting aggression to off leash control.

Of course, you'll have to add to these totals when you have to 'retake' a class which could mean more money, and additional time.

Many training venues are very clever in their pricing schemes, and will take advantage of the fact that some folks enjoy the social aspect training offers. "Levels of training" is a clever marketing strategy to keep dog owners coming back.

The more levels generate more revenue. Do the math! Let's face it...Many folks do train for the social aspect dog training provides. Owners will train from week to week, year to year, and the costs associated with monthly classes, is akin to a monthly membership in a health club, or a golf course, because socializing, not 'training', is the primary goal. At Circler Farm the focus is on training, and getting it done right!

Where does Circler Farm fit in all this?

Circler Farm's AKC Novice Guaranteed! runs $180 for ten weeks. You will be given instruction in which you will teach your dog commands (sit, sit/stay, down, down/stay, come, heel, paying attention, finish, stand, stand/stay, amongst major distractions) and you will be challenged to take what you have learned in class and work your dog in real world environments six days a week.

During the ten weeks, you will work inside, and outside, without paying an extra fee. Young or old, aggressive or mild, equal opportunity abounds here... so paying extra for puppy classes, feisty fido classes or boot camps are not necessary.

You are provided materials, and standard training equipment with your class fee. You do not have to purchase fancy restraining devices, cookies, or gadgets. The graduation exercise is the AKC Novice routine. The Canine Good Citizen test is given, free of charge, anytime you feel you are ready.

In ten weeks you CAN accomplish off leash control of your dog; if you're willing to follow the instruction provided and complete the work at home. I GUARANTEE IT! (details provided at orientation).

Whether you train to control your unruly dog or you're training to compete, Circler Farm's AKC Novice Guaranteed! class can get it done.

"Seems that much of what we do as trainers is overcome natural instinct. We teach pulling dogs not to pull, hunting dogs not to hunt, herding dogs not to herd, guarding dogs not to guard, fighting dogs not to fight and dogs born without clothing to dress up. "Harold Hansen"
